It's almost here! The Paul Kaplan Group and about 100,000 attendees are getting ready for the biggest festival of its kind, Modernism Week, coming to Palm Springs Feb 15 to 25th. "The ultimate celebration of mid-century design, architecture and culture." Tickets sell out months in advance, but don't worry! There's still a ton of things to do, see and enjoy in Palm Springs, for those that procrastinated!! See some of the highlights below from the Modernism Week events web page:

Architecture:

"The Power of Pattern" house tour and book release

Join us for a midcentury house tour and celebration of the release of Palm Springs Preservation Foundation's lavishly illustrated book Concrete Screen Block: The Power of Pattern. The event will be held in a stunning 1963 modernist home designed by New York master builder Boris Gertzen. The Palm Springs Preservation Foundation is a non-profit organization whose mission is "to educate and promote public awareness of the importance of preserving the historical resources and architecture of the city of Palm Springs and the Coachella Valley area."
